A tract called the Patapsco Mill Seat, containing 156 acres, adjoining general Ridgely's mill, on Patapsco. Should the last mentioned tract not be sold at private sale, or on or before the 10th day of January next, it will then be offered at public sale, at Messrs. Yates and Campbell's verdue store.

Also—sundry tracts of land, lying in Baltimore county, which will be more particularly described before that day. For any part, or the whole of the above-mentioned property, 6 per cent., 3 per cent., or deferred stock of the United States, stock in either of the banks in Maryland, Morris and Nicholson's paper, or bonds with approved security, with interest at one, two, and three years, will be received. Any person desirous of treating for these lands, will make application to the subscriber, living at Annapolis, where more full description can be given, and good titles made, on payment being made, or satisfactorily secured to be paid.

SAMUEL GODMAN.

Annapolis, November 22, 1796.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY, on Sunday, the 20th November, a negro woman named NAN, about five feet two or three inches high, about thirty years of age, her wool very long before round faced, large full eyes, very black, she carried with her a stamp'd-cotton gown, a blow Dpetticoat of Quan's spinning, a pair of high heeled shoes, and an old wool hat;—she had with her another suit which I do not recollect;—she was purchased from the Eastern Shore, and probably may make that way. The above reward will be paid, if she is lodged in any jail in this state, so that the owner or may get her again, and reasonable charges if brought home.

HUGH DRUMMOND.

All persons are hereby forewarned from taking off said negro woman at their peril.
